Florida Memorial University Intramural Sports & Recreation Equipment Checkout Policy.

1. Any Florida Memorial University member can check out equipment from the Intramural Sports Office with a valid FMU University ID. ID must stay in the possession of the office until item(s) are returned.
2. Members can check out enough equipment for one individual to participate in the recreational activity of their choice. An organization or department may check out more than one item.
3. Members must return ALL equipment before getting his/her ID back.
4. If equipment becomes lost, stolen, or damaged, the member who checked out the item is responsible for replacing the equipment. The cost can be paid out to the Intramural Sports or charged to his/her student account (if member is a student). Student accounts may also be blocked until equipment is returned or paid for.

I, _____, have read the Equipment Checkout Policy and agree to the terms stated above. I am responsible for the equipment I have checked out and will be held accountable for any and all damages to equipment that I have checked out.
